

John Tilley of the Mayflower

Among those on board the ship Mayflower when it finally reached New England in November 1620 were John Tilley and his wife Joan (Hurst) Rogers, and their daughter Elizabeth. John Tilley was baptized in Henlow, Bedfordshire, England on 19 December 1571, son of Henry and Johan (----) Tilley. Joan Hurst was baptized there 20 September 1596, daughter of William and Rose (----) Hurst. Joan was the widow of Thomas Rogers. Brother Edward Tilley and his wife Ann Cooper were also passengers on the Mayflower, as well as his niece, Humility cooper, and nephew, Henry Samson.

A religious group called the Separatists had fled from England to Holland to escape the fines and punishments for their illegal religious practices. After about ten years in Holland, the Separatists found that jobs were hard to find and they were poor. They did not approve of the Dutch customs and way of life, and they did not approve of their children mixing with the Dutch children. They wanted to keep their English customs and their own religion, so they decided to go to the New World in search of religious freedom.

After several financial and political problems, two ships were obtained. The Speedwell (which leaked and could not make the trip) sailed from Leyden, Holland with the Separatists aboard. And the Mayflower sailed from Southampton, England with the London and English group (including the Tilleys). One problem after another delayed their departure until they had to cross the stormy North Atlantic Ocean during a bad time of the year. After 66 miserable days at sea with 102 passengers packed in that tiny ship, they finally anchored near Provincetown on Cape Cod in Massachusetts. Because of the mumbling and grumbling on board the ship, 41 men, including both Tilley brothers, signed an agreement, called the Mayflower Compact. This famous historic document is an example of our country's earliest democratic government.

It was December and very cold before the area at Plymouth was finally selected as the site to establish the colony. Today we call this group of people who settled there the Pilgrims. Daughter Elizabeth survived that first terrible winter when half of those who had just arrived perished from an unidentified epidemic, but both John Tilley and his wife died as well as brother Edward Tilley and his wife, who had no known children.

Adolescent Elizabeth Tilley, baptized in Henlow 30 August 1607 lived with one of the surviving Pilgrim families until her marriage to Pilgrim John Howland of the Mayflower.

John and Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland had 10 children and 84 grandchildren:

1. DESIRE married JOHN GORHAM. 2. JOHN JR. married MARY LEE. 3. HOPE married JOHN CHIPMAN. 4. ELIZABETH married EPHRAIM HICKS and JOHN DICKINSON. 5. LYDIA married JAMES BROWN. 6. HANNAH married JONATHAN BOSWORTH. 7. JOSEPH married ELIZABETH SOUTHWORTH. 8. RUTH married THOMAS CUSHMAN, grandson of Pilgrim Isaac Allerton of the Mayflower. 9. JABEZ married BETHIAH THATCHER. 10. ISAAC married ELIZABETH VAUGHN.
